

Rep. David Taylor, R-Moxee

Rep. David Taylor was appointed to his 15th District seat in March 2009 and has served in the Legislature ever since.

David is a graduate of Ellensburg High School and Central Washington University and is a former director of the Kittitas County Community Development Services Department. He also served seven years as Kittitas County planning director.

In 2004, he opened Taylor Consulting Group, which specializes in land use, water and agriculture issues, policy development and government relations.

David currently serves on the House Environment and Appropriations Committee and is the Ranking Member on the House Local Government Committee. He is known in Olympia for his unwavering commitment to less government, less taxes and more freedom for all Washingtonians. His willingness to embrace “liberty and justice for all” has led him to work across party lines for the betterment of all Washington citizens.

David has pioneered drone legislation and other bills dealing with privacy issues that have served as a model in other states. He has appeared in many national publications and other media in his efforts to promote personal liberty, privacy and freedom.

David and his wife, Molly, raise quarter horses on Taylor Angus Ranch and reside in Moxee with their children, Tiffany and Brock.
